

I oppose broadband over power lines due to the fact that it creates electrical noise which interferes with shortwave radio communication. Fix the noise problem and opposition will fade away.